Pacific Coast Bankers' Bank assumes role as new custodian for IDC Deposit's money market products

ATLANTA, June 19, 2008 – Institutional Deposits Corp. ("IDC Deposits"), which provides community banks with innovative and efficient ways to gain reliable access to money market funds from large investors, announced that Pacific Coast Bankers' Bank ("PCBB") is the new custodian for IDC Deposit's money market based solutions. PCBB is one of the largest bankers' bank in the United States.

"PCBB and IDC Deposits have been working together for over four years so this was the next logical step to further expand the business relationship. Pacific Coast Bankers' Bank is an innovative financial institution that provides the highest quality of service. We are very excited about this new, expanded relationship," Kim Weeks, President of IDC Deposits.

"We are excited to provide custodial services to IDC Deposit's customers. We are committed to providing high quality and dependable operational services. Quality and privacy are of the utmost importance, our values are in synch with those of IDC Deposits," said Steve Brown, President & CEO of PCBB.

Institutional Deposits Corp. has been providing funding, investing and fee income solutions to community banks across the U.S. "We have purchased funds through IDC Deposits and we have found it very helpful to utilize their private label investment program (MMAX), which allows our community bank to offer expanded FDIC insurance coverage up to $5 million to customers," said Elliott Miller, President, Georgia Banking Company. He added, "Their services are reliable and cost-effective; they are important components to our funding and investing strategies."

"We continue to seek out service providers that are in alignment with our quality standards and we believe that PCBB will be the best custodial partner for our Products. Operationally, they offer excellent service," said Barbara Hinkle, Vice president Client Relations for IDC Deposits.

About Institutional Deposits Corp.

IDC Deposits provides Investing, Funding, and Fee Income Solutions through innovative money market deposit programs. We offer banks with excess funds an alternative to the fed funds sold option, increasing their yield without sacrificing liquidity. Banks that are in the need for funds can purchase deposits that adjust with their prime based assets. Our newest program MMAX, allows banks to offer expanded FDIC insurance on money market deposits to their retail customers. IDC was formed to provide the banking industry with a method for enhancing FDIC insurance coverage. This coverage is created through a Network of well capitalized banks and thrifts.
